FACULTY PROVES A VALUABLE AD

Capably filling a vital role, Principal Donald Spencer directed all faculty and student activities in "the process called education." Vice-Principal Don Holmlund, advisor of the Board of Control, assisted in the coordination of school events.

New personalities enlivened the school year. Additions to the faculty included Jerry Anderson in physical education, health, and world problems; George Asan in western civilization and sociology; Ron Cygan in English; Betty Fitchner in home economics; Douglas James in choir; Joan King and Lorraine Whitlock in library; Myron Lee in business law, typing, and business math; Lawrence Madden in German; Tom Thomas in swimming; and Barbara Whitney in English.

Many teachers studied to improve educational skills during the summer preceding the opening of school in September. Bill Giersch attended the University of the Americas in Mexico City, John Hogan directed "Blithe Spirit" as part of the requirements for his Master's degree at Eastern Washington State College, Don Holmlund received his Master's degree at Central Washington State College, and Bill Jamison studied at Washington State University. Other teachers who devoted the summer to study included Mary Kreps at Pacific Lutheran University, Myron Lee at Central Washington State College, and Susan Swanson at the University of Washington. Principal Don Spencer also attended summer sessions at the University of Washington.

Activities out of school strengthened friendships between teachers and students. Chosen chairman of the Sunshine Kids Drive, Mr. Jamison planned the overall program which included selling Christmas trees, collecting toys and giving radio broadcasts. Members of SHOUT added their efforts to provide happy holidays for the children of Grays Harbor.

As counselors, three faculty members—Dorothy Ladley, Kenneth Leach, and Peter Hegg—provided hours of thoughtful advice to students concerning academic and personal problems. In addition to counseling, Mrs. Ladley advised Alpha FTA, and SHOUT; Mr. Leach supervised activities of the Honor Society; and Mr. Hegg coached golf.

The faculty regretfully noted the retirement of John Rooney, mechanical drawing teacher, at the end of the year. THE HESPERIAN staff pays tribute to him for his faithful and successful years as a teacher.

Miss Fitchner supervises the preparation of refreshments for the Christmas party given by her home economics students for the faculty.

DIRECTS SCHOOL GOVERNMENT

As A.S.B. President, Dave Williams prepared the agenda for Board of Control meetings. The assistance of Vice-President Andy Bohrnson helped inform the student body of the council's activities. Diane Thomlinson, secretary, kept accurate minutes of the proceedings and Karolyn Backholm handled the finances. While Publicity Manager Bill Quigg enlightened the students concerning school events, Yell King Dale Nordell led the students through a year of pep and enthusiasm.

The Student Council strove to promote a closer relationship between the public and students by organizing various activities. With the community's help, the council placed trash disposal cans in areas for student use.

The community witnessed the true spirit of the student body through other council functions which included a joint Hoquiam-Aberdeen Board of Control meeting, the hanging of a pep banner in downtown Hoquiam, the presenting of a plaque plus a lettermen's jacket to Olympic Stadium caretaker Tommy Marlow, and money-raising drives for rooter buses.

GIRLS AND BOYS LEAGUE

The Girls' League, headed by Mary Jo Frodel, strove to be an outstanding organization of Hoquiam High. Before the opening of school in September, several girls cleaned and painted the concession stand at the Olympic Stadium where the League later made money to finance the year's activities. The girls fashioned candy Christmas wreaths for the hospitals and filled a Christmas basket with food and toys for a needy family. They also sponsored a foster child in Viet Nam, sending her money, clothes, and food.

The League sponsored Happiness Week in October based on "Peanuts" characters to promote happiness throughout the school. Each month they presented the Girl of the Month award to an outstanding senior girl. A Christmas program, dances after games, and the second annual style show on Valentine's Day highlighted the girls' calendar. The May Dance following the Mother's Day Tea in the gym constituted the climax of a successful year.

Members of the Girls' League fashion decorations for the Mothers' Day Tea.

Advised by Mr. Bell and Mr. Curtright and directed by President Tom LaForest, the Boys' League returned Career Day to Hoquiam High. Sergeant Gary Ostlund discussed draft requirements as well as careers and opportunities for advancement in the Armed Services at a Boys' League assembly on February 14.

On March 22, representatives from a wide variety of occupations spoke to senior high students about various aspects of their chosen careers.

The Boys' Council brightened their appearance by purchasing new gray sweaters to replace the outmoded crimson ones. With Mr. Stinchfield's advice, the Council cooperated with the Pepsters in ushering and maintaining order at all athletic events.

KAREN IN SWITZERLAND

The first Hoquiam student to go abroad for an entire school year through the American Field Service program, Karen Linnenkohl left Seattle for New York on August 16. After ten days of travel by ship and train, Karen arrived in Illnau, near Zurich, and greeted her new family, Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wespi, their daughters Elizabeth, 19, and Susie, 12, and their son Hansjacob, 15.

While in Zurich, Karen attended a private school for girls and studied biology, chemistry, German, history, geography, and algebra six days a week. Instead of a long summer vacation, Karen's school enjoyed a short vacation each season. During fall vacation Karen and Susie worked with eight other girls in a vineyard in French Switzerland for a week. "The land is beautiful," Karen exclaimed in her letters, "high snow-covered mountains, thick forests with multi-colored leaves, small chalets, narrow cobblestone roads!" About the grapes, Karen said, "You haven't tasted grapes until you've tasted them off the vine with a little dirt!" She also visited the tiny country of Liechtenstein during fall vacation.

Concerning Christmas customs in Switzerland, Karen wrote, "On the sixth of December Sammy Claus comes. He brings oranges, peanuts, candy and perhaps toys. He also reads out of his Claus book whether you've been good or bad. Then on Christmas Eve the Christ Child brings the presents. The candles are lit on the tree on Christmas Eve."

Karen enthusiastically participated in skiing, the most popular and exciting Swiss sport. After Christmas her entire school journeyed to Madulain, a small village in the Alps, for a month's study of home economics. The stay in Madulain provided an opportunity for Karen to ski at St. Moritz, a winter resort famous for its tobogganing course, and Piz Nair, a mountain of 10,000 foot elevation.

In March, Karen and the other students returned to Zurich to begin their "Praktikum" by working in a kindergarten nursery. During the following spring vacation Karen traveled to southern Switzerland and Italy and then toured Geneva and Bern with twenty-five other A.F.S. students.

The year abroad provided priceless friendships and experiences for Karen. Anticipating a first-hand report of her stay in Switzerland, the students of Hoquiam High remain proud of having had such an exceptional student represent them in another part of the world.

With the support of sixty-six members, the leadership of President Roger Spencer, and the advice of Mr. Jamison and Mrs. Swanson, the International Relations Club participated in two mock United Nations.

At Shoreline High School in Seattle, Bob Paylor, Barb Meyers, and Evelyn Bennett appeared on television. At this meeting the club represented four nations: Uganda, Turkey, Greece, and Mexico.

Later in the year, delegates from the club traveled to Clark College in Vancouver. The members represented a bloc of Communist nations: the U.S.S.R., Romania, Byelorussia, Hungary, and Bulgaria.

To cover expenses, members of IRC sponsored bake sales, sold refreshments at several sports events, and organized the sale of mums for the Thanksgiving football game.

"Resolved that the foreign aid program of the United States be limited to non-military assistance." This proved to be an absorbing and controversial topic for this year's debate team.

Under the leadership of Mr. Hogan, the team members Barb Hannick, Anne Bushey, Hollee Mickelson, Gregg Newstrand, Tom Ekstrand, and Andy Holt attended many district and college meets. The team, true to Hoquiam tradition, received many honors. They placed fourth in district meets, participated in the district league meet, and received recognition by being the only junior team to receive an invitation to the tournament in Pullman. In March, Barb Hannick and Hollee Mickelson further distinguished the team by placing fourth out of sixteen in competition in Olympia.

SHOUT: SERVICE IN TH

Composed of members from all classes, the Senior High Organization of United Teenagers completed its second year of action at Hoquiam High by promoting various worthwhile projects. The energetic group devoted many hours to raising money for the A.F.S. program through candy, doughnut, and hot dog sales. By doing this, they provided Karen Linnenkohl, Hoquiam's A.F.S. representative in Switzerland, with a holiday phone call to her family. During the Christmas season SHOUT assisted the Sunshine Kids program by collecting toys and sponsoring a dance. The active organization also launched the Save Our School campaign which provided the future students of Hoquiam High with a new school. In February, SHOUT sent Valentines to boys in Viet Nam, and in the spring they projected their annual "Dollars for Scholars" drive.

Throughout the year SHOUT members organized other beneficial projects such as a campus cleanup campaign which enabled them to fulfill the SHOUT motto of "Projects for Progress, and Fun in the Process."

Nancy Dowling and Nancy Bowers, co-chairmen of A.F.S., outline some of activities for International Weekend.

F.T.A.: TOMORROW'S LEADERS IN EDUCATION

Bev Lamb, Marilyn Waples, and Mary Kay McBride observe the teaching methods of Miss Blackmore at Central Grade School as part of a Future Teacher's project.

To familiarize each member to a greater extent with the teaching profession became the goal of Future Teachers of America Club. The members adopted the requirement that each student observe at least one class and then participate in a panel discussion of his observations. This plan provided the most effective means of obtaining the desired knowledge.

In order to sponsor their annual one hundred dollar scholarship, the club operated concessions at two high school basketball games and sold doughnuts during the noon hour at school.

F. T. A. members elected the following officers to direct the activities of the year in cooperation with the advisors Mrs. Ladley and Mr. Allasina: Colleen Alwood, President; Trudy Bodey, Vice President; Emily Lonac, Secretary; Marilyn Mallow, Treasurer; Karon Mackenzie, Historian; and Diane Laaksonen, Parliamentarian.

Following the opening of school, the Gazette staff encountered numerous problems, finding no advisor, room nor typewriters to assist in the publication of a bi-weekly newspaper. Nevertheless, a determined staff set the presses rolling with the help of Mr. Lee, who served as printer; Mrs. Cox, who accepted the position of advisor; and Mr. Holevas who provided his office for working space.

Students enthusiastically received the fine eight-page special edition issued in recognition of the Thanksgiving football victory. As first semester staff members, Rod Ferguson, Debbie Burgess, Lynelle White, Tim Erickson, Roger Spencer, Patsy Turner, Charlotte Cole, and Mrs. Cox spent many hours working on the special edition during the brief vacation.

She second semester found new staff members reporting events of interest in Hoquiam High. The staff included Lynelle White, Steve Smith, Sue Skinner, Evelyn Conine, Vera Evans, and Cheri Bailey.

HOQUIAM HIGH'S SENIOR CLASS

with

Debbie Burgess
Hollie Mickelson
Anne Bushey

Mrs. St. Maugham (Hollie Mickelson) regards her engagement book before she tells Maitland (Tom Ekstrand) that she will not open the local festival because the townspeople are "like wolves" waiting for her to die.

Laurel (Debbie Burgess) explains to her grandmother that she does not wish to leave with her mother (Rhonda Nations), while Maitland, Miss Madrigal, and Judge (Norm Yates) await her final decision for life.

THE PLAY: A STEPPING STONE

BACK ROW: Karla Hedstrom, Vicki Sandoval. Norm Yates, Miss Whitney, Tom Ekstrand, Anne Bushey, Karen Martinson.

Skillfully directed by Miss Whitney, "The Chalk Garden" revealed fine dramatic talent on the part of the seniors involved. The play concerned Madrigal, an English woman who applied for a job as governess and received the position. Her duties consisted of caring for Laurel, a sixteen year - old overly - imaginative girl. Laurel lived with her grandmother, Mrs. St. Maugham, a peculiar woman who gardened to escape old age. Mrs. St. Maugham cared greatly for Laurel and spent much time with her as did Maitland the butler. Olivia, Laurel's mother, had attempted to escape the dictatorial society of London against the wishes of Mrs. St. Maugham. Olivia's decision late in life to reclaim her daughter greatly affected the lives of all involved.

Connie Collins, as Big Brother's messenger, reminds the others that "Freedom is Slavery."

"Big Brother is watching you." Under his constant vigil the people of "1984" had to live. By stressing the omnipresent Big Brother, hidden telescreens, and an all-powerful Party, George Orwell vividly portrayed a bleak world of complete Party control over men's thoughts, actions, and writings. As lovers, Winston Smith and Julia plan to escape the ever-present thought police by joining the underground. They discover, however, the Party's inexorable power as their attempt ends in failure. The living tragedy of the world of "1984" culminated when Winston, once again under Party control, realized that "he had won the victory over himself. He loved Big Brother."

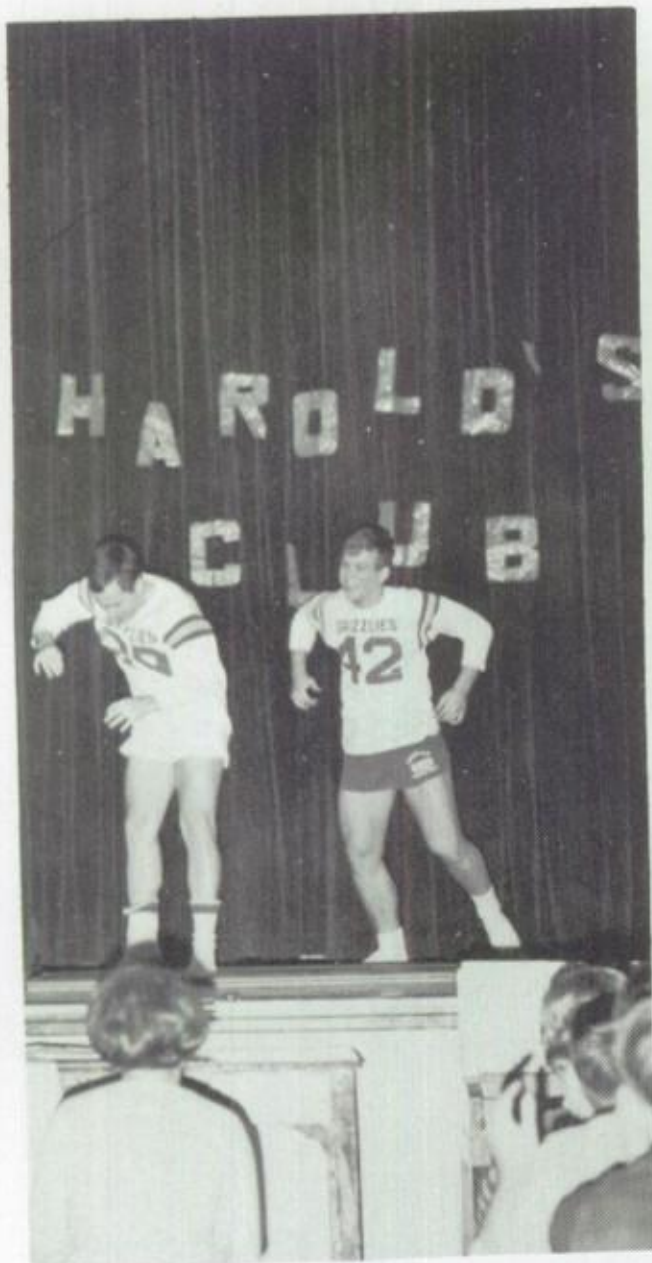

N EDUCATION

Dave Brook as Winston and Kim Brook as Julia secretly meet under the watchful eyes of Big Brother.

Bob Knudson and Chuck Scott, world-famous gymnasts, perform intricate routines to add to the diversified talent of the program.

Six anonymous seniors display their amazing talents of comedy and singing with their rendition of "Siberia."

Directed by Mr. James, the students of Hoquiam High produce another successful Talent Search Spectacular. Chairman Andy Bohrensen and Master of Ceremonies Tim Wandell led the talented performers through their acts.

Returned by popular demand, the Grizzly football team sang their rendition of "You Gotta Have Heart." Dave Brook enthralled the audience with his performance of "Trouble" from "The Music Man." Nancy Bowers and Peggy Paulson added their talented dancing techniques to the success of the show, as did singers Kari Satlow, Norm Yates, and Chris Holmes. The skillfully-blended voices of "The Dreamers" brought T.S.S. to a fitting close.

TALENT SEARCH SPECTACULAR AND THE PROCESS OF

Generating the enthusiasm of the entire cast of T.S.S., the Hoquiam High School football team, led by Harold Reames, sings "You Gotta Have Heart."

Karen Gustafson adds her rendition of "No, No, A Thousand Times No" to the Senior Night program.

The football team, anxiously awaiting the Hoquiam-Aberdeen game, is honored at Senior Night.

The Senior Class of 1967 enthusiastically presented the traditional "Senior Night" for the football team, student body and public on Thanksgiving eve before the annual Hoquiam - Aberdeen game.

The entertainment, as announced by Master of Ceremonies Roger Spencer and coached by Advisor Mr. Hegg, included several musical numbers given by Karin Satlow, Karen Gustafson, Chris Holmes, and Norm Yates. A number of "commercials," narrated by Dave Brook, proved to be especially entertaining, and a comedy routine involving Monte Smith and Bob Paylor received a lively response. Students relived their grade school days with skits from Emerson, Washington and Central schools. They brought back many memories about the fun of recess activities, "show and tell" time, patrol boy picnics, and song queen routines.

The evening, climaxed by an inspirational pep assembly led by the pep staff, created excitement for the coming game and compliments for some fine senior talent.

POMPANOS AND G.A.A.: ATHLETIC

Pompanos presented their fourth annual water show using the theme "Babes in Toyland" and portraying fairytale characters such as Raggedy Ann and Andy, and tin soldiers in the setting of a toy shop. The show also included grade school children.

The leadership of President Nancy Dowling, Vice-president Bev Lamb, Secretary Kathy Lachiondo, Treasurer Heidi Horne, Scribe Jane Osborn, Junior High Representative Judy Worthly, and Advisor Miss McCormick insured the successful organization and execution of the Pompanos' activities.

The Egyptian dolls and wooden soldiers watch the escapades of the other toys.

Under the toyshop clock, the toys patiently await their turns to perform.

Miss McCormick holds an informal meeting with the Girls' H Club officers.

IN EDUCATION

Mrs. Brower scores two points for the faculty at the Faculty vs. Girls H Club Basketball game.

Sixty-one members of the Girls' H Club enjoyed a very active year by participating in volley ball, trampoline, tumbling, line soccer, swimming, tennis, and bowling. In addition, the club presented the annual banquet for the members of basketball, swimming, and wrestling teams and sponsored a number of slumber parties, one of which Aberdeen's Girls' H Club attended.

President Karla Hedstrom, Vice-President Connie Collins, and Secretary-Treasurer Barb Turpin organized the Club's activities with the assistance of the advisor, Miss McCormick.

H Club members compete in a game of tug of war.

The "H" Club, led by President Chuck Scott, Vice President Tim Wandell, Sgt.-at-Arms Bob Knudson, and Advisors Mr. Grosz and Mr. Asan, found itself involved in various, advantageous activities. The annual automobile safety check, sponsored by the Boys' League, enabled the lettermen to enforce safety rules upon all drivers.

The "H" Club also proved to be an energetic organization by adding to its list of activities their first dance held on May 5 featuring the "Live Five," a big name band from Portland, Oregon.

Devoted pep club member paints pep sign to enthuse spirit of students.

The Pep Club's purpose of promoting enthusiasm and sportsmanship in athletic events involved club members in an active and successful year. Membership consisted of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who wore crimson and gray on game days, attended all home games, and made pep signs and slogans. Early in the year the club chose Marilyn Mallow, Sheri McGuire, and Judy Ounsted as class leaders to assist the officers. Concentrating on Pep Week preceding the Thanksgiving Day football game, club members sold booster buttons and pep horns and made over a hundred signs in school colors for pep assemblies and the cheering section. Chris Byron as Queen and Princesses Sheri McGuire and Paula Manwell reigned over all Pep Week activities which triumphed in the defeat of Aberdeen at Olympic Stadium.

SUCCESSFUL BANQUET HIGHLIGHTS PEPSTER YEAR

One of Hoquiam High's most active service clubs contributed to the successful functioning of football and basketball games. The Pepsters ushered and sold programs at all home football games and boosted school spirit by wearing Pepster sweaters on all game days. They made "good luck" horseshoes for all of the members of the football team before Thanksgiving. On December 8, the Pepster cooperated with the Kiwanis Club to provide a banquet for the football team and public. As Master of Ceremonies, Joe Randich contributed to the success of the banquet.

Those who attended basketball games found the girls continuing their work in ushering and distributing programs. The red and gray shakers sold by the club added color to the cheering section.

President Carla Daily, Vice-President Hilary Mann, Secretary Geraldine Prehm, Treasurer Karin Satlow and Scribe Gayle Hutchings led the club with the advice of Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Mitby.

BAND STRIVES FOR NEW UNIFORMS

Mr. Mason, band instructor, directs his students on perfect playing technique.

The Hoquiam High School band, under the direction of Charles Mason, provided entertainment through concerts, pep assemblies, and marching performances. The band played two popular jazz routines, "Go! Twist!" and "Spanish Flea," for half-time intervals. Stan Dickhoff, chosen as drum major, assisted Mr. Mason in leading the band.

The annual Mid-Winter Concert, presented in February, featured "Percussion Espanol" and "Parade of the Charioteers." An appreciative audience received the Spring Concert in May equally as well. On March 18, judges awarded the band an "excellent" rating for their performance in the Southwest Washington Music Meet at R. A. Long.

CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA AD

Under the capable direction of Mr. James, the Hoquiam High School Choir made numerous appearances during the year. The 70 choir members received a warm response for an impressive performance during the Veterans' Day Assembly and provided entertainment for the Hoquiam Elks' Club on November 22. The choir participated in the Sunshine Kids Christmas Broadcast on December 12 and presented holiday music to their parents and student body members in two other Christmas concerts. Traveling to Longview in March for the Southwest Washington Music Contest, the choir received high ratings as a fitting culmination to an enjoyable year.

ENTERTAINMENT TO THE PROCESS

Orchestra requires much practice for Diane Laaksonen and Dave Barrett.

Under the direction of Mr. Charles Elwell, the twenty-five musicians of the high school orchestra concentrated primarily on small ensemble groups in order to increase individual strength. Orchestra members presented two formal recitals in preparation for the April 22 Choral Contest in Hoquiam.

In addition to participation in the annual winter and spring concerts, music critics awarded the orchestra high ratings in the Southwest Washington Music Contest held on March 18 at R. A. Long.

Mr. Elwell's musicians also received recognition for their active efforts in the music department drive for new uniforms.

Revolving around a Saint Patrick's Day theme, the Junior-Senior Ball took place on March 17. An Irish pub marked the entrance to the "Emerald Isle." Under a ceiling of pink and green streamers, couples danced around a large toadstool where two leprechauns sat guarding a pot of gold. The walls featured green shamrocks covered with scenes of leprechauns and elves; a large wooden harp with a background of shamrocks adorned the picture booth. Pages Cathy Hyndman and Terri Weber, dressed as Irish elves, served punch from a big green hat and distributed green and pink clover-shaped programs. Ernie Edwards and his jazz band provided music for the evening.

The student body chose King Tom LaForest, Queen Terry Major, Prince Wayne Ross, and Princess Patti Walsh as royalty for the occasion. Members of the Boys' H Club served as the Honor Guard for the coronation.

Under the direction of general chairmen Hilary Mann and Nancy Bowers and advisors Mrs. Cox and Mr. Hegg, many chairmen and committee members worked diligently to make the ball a success.

GIRL AND BOY

Outstanding leaders and scholars insured the successful operation of Hoquiam High's varied activities and organizations. In recognition of their service, eighteen students received Boy and Girl of the Month awards.

A student-faculty committee selected nine girls for their dependability, scholarship, service, ambition and friendliness. After being presented a pin, each girl became a member of the Girl of the Month committee.

The Hoquiam Lions Club chose nine senior boys to receive Boy of the Month awards on the basis of scholarship, initiative, reliability, and service to the school and community.

Mr. Shaffer convinces Honor Society students "You can do anything if you put your mind to it."

The National Honor Society constituted all seniors and juniors with a 3.5 grade point average or a 3.0 average including three activity points. The sophomores, considered members after one semester, also anticipated to meet these standards.

The third annual banquet held at the YMCA in March highlighted the year. The juniors received pins and new membership cards while sophomores received only membership cards. In addition to the banquet, the Honor Society also served in the concession stands at two basketball games.

Under the leadership of President Tim Erickson and Advisor Mr. Leach, the Honor Society stimulated students to strive for scholastic achievement. Chuck Scott as vice president, Hilary Mann as secretary, Marilyn Mallow as treasurer, and Steve Hines as sergeant-at-arms provided able assistance in stressing scholarship and planning Honor Society activities.

EXCELLENCE IN ACADEMICS

Trudy Bodey

In recognition of her fine qualities of leadership, service, dependability, and patriotism, the senior class and faculty chose Trudy Bodey as the DAR Good Citizen award winner. Presented annually by the Robert Gray Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the award enabled Trudy to participate in a state contest by completing an examination on the United States Constitution for which the state winner received a $100 U. S. Savings Bond.

1966: THE GRIZZLY REBELLION

The outcome of the 1966 season demonstrated that inspiration and teamwork determined Grizzly success, for an inspired Hoquiam team proved itself unstoppable on two memorable occasions. Unfortunately, however, the required teamwork failed to appear in games with R.A. Long and Kelso when the Lumberjacks and Highlanders soundly defeated Hoquiam. The Grizzlies improved their record by beating Chehalis 33-13 and Centralia 18-13, but even in these games, Hoquiam players did not appear at their finest. In contrast, the encounters with Hudson's Bay and Aberdeen showed that an inspired Grizzly team could perform brilliantly and could not be beaten.

Hudson's Bay arrived at Olympic Stadium undefeated and ranked fifth in the state. The Eagles scored first, only to see Hoquiam retaliate with two touchdowns. After forty-eight rainy minutes of skillfully executed Grizzly strategy, the scoreboard revealed a 13-6 victory for Hoquiam.

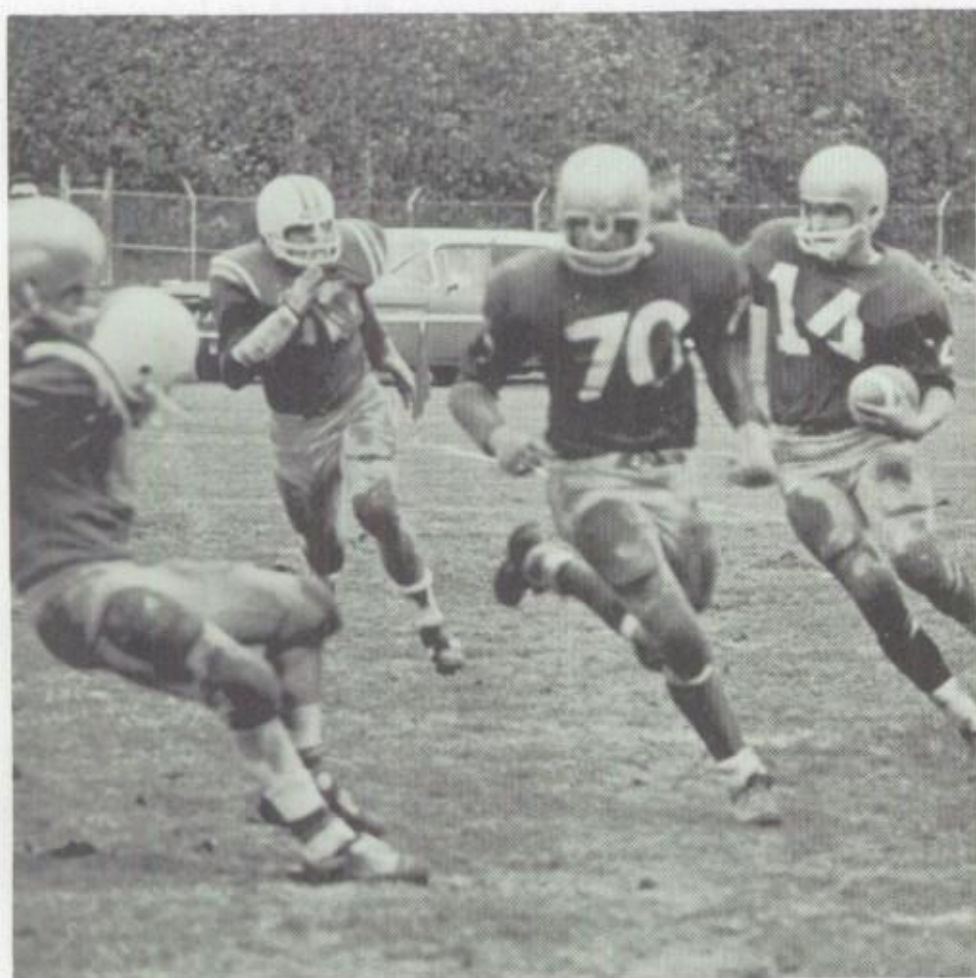

Before the Turkey Day game, "The Aberdeen Daily World" predicted a three-touchdown deficit for Hoquiam, but oblivious of this, the Grizzlies took the field primed for victory. Jon Parker hit Jack Irion on one touchdown pass during the first half while Steve Wise and Mark Fletcher ran for two more. Breaking the huddle for the second half with a 21-0 lead the Grizzlies continued their superior play as Parker passed to Irion and Linnenkohl passed to Wise for two more touchdowns. Throughout the game, players who scored the points received the vital support of the dedicated Grizzly linemen who opened gaping holes in the Aberdeen line on offense while placing constant pressure on the Bobcat passers. The inspired play of Milt McGuire, Andy Bohrsen, Bob Knudson, Bob Thompson, Kim Aiken, Dave Williams, Fred Pellegrini, Fred Bennett, Bill Quigg, Don Zedrick, Mike Tanner, Mike Descher, Tony Braykovich, and John Pellegrini held Aberdeen to a minus seven yards rushing and allowed the Grizzlies to score 35 points. Instead of taking home their thirteenth consecutive victory, the Bobcats left Olympic Stadium in a crushing defeat with 13 points. A determined student body, coaching staff and thirty-eight Hoquiam players had decided to rebel against a record of twelve consecutive losses in the Turkey Day clash with Aberdeen. A challenge existed, that challenge was accepted, and a game was won.

Trailed by Bill Quigg and an Aberdeen player, Jack Irion scores on the first of many Hoquiam drives.

GRIZZLY HARRIERS PLACE FOURTH AT DISTRICT IN LONGVIEW

Due to lack of returning lettermen, Hoquiam's Cross Country team endured a frustrating second year. Senior Doug Sturm led the Grizzlies to their two victories over Aberdeen, but Coach Boettcher's main handicap lay in the area of depth. All too often the Grizzly runners finished first and last, suffering from the composite method of scoring cross-country meets. Nevertheless, the Grizzlies placed fourth in the District Cross Country Meet held in Longview; only Kelso, Hudson's Bay, and Fort Vancouver proved better in a field of thirteen Southwest Washington contenders. In order of finish at the district meet, the team consisted of Doug Sturm, Dave Wilson, John Boettcher, Don Stearns, Wayne Ross, Roger Smith, and John Kilcup. Considering 1966 as only the second cross country season for the Grizzly harriers, Coach Boettcher expressed pride in the high ratings the team received in the Northern Division.

BILL QUIGG LEAD

Jon Parker works for two points against a determined Raymond opponent.

Under the fine direction of Coach Jerry Anderson, Hoquiam achieved a 17-7 season record. After surmounting their early season problems, the Grizzlies finished second in the Southwest Washington Class AA Conference.

The Grizzlies found perhaps their greatest asset this year on their fine bench. When starters Bill Quigg, Jack Irion, Tom LaForest, Keith Reynvaan, or John Quigg received too many fouls, reserves Jon Parker and Bob Thompson added their fine ability to the team's efforts. Hoquiam, too, had the finest sixth man in the conference, Wayne Ross.

After losing a poorly played game to Centralia 47-59, the Grizzlies finished the season with a 10-out-of-11 winning streak. The flaw in Hoquiam's string of victories, the Grizzlies' loss to Aberdeen 56-65, helped to provide enough momentum to defeat Aberdeen in the return game 53-44.

As a result of this inspired victory, Hoquiam tied with Evergreen and Kelso for second place in the league necessitating two play-off games. The Grizzlies won their games with Kelso 60-48 and Evergreen 45-37 to capture second place. Exhausted from their efforts in these games, Hoquiam bowed to Aberdeen 44-61 and lost to Evergreen 50-52 despite a strong fourth quarter rally. These results sent the Bobcats and the Plainsmen to the regional tournament and returned the Grizzlies to Hoquiam.

Under the excellent training of Coach Jack Curtright, the Hoquiam wrestling team endured a season of learning. With only three returning senior lettermen, the Grizzlies lacked the necessary depth to win. The Hoquiam grapplers did, however, combine their strength and ability to provide impressive shows against Mark Morris and R. A. Long. The Grizzlies nearly missed upsetting highly favored Mark Morris by a mere decision (28 - 24) and lost to R. A. Long (34 - 13).

Two senior standouts, Mike Tanner (16 - 4) and Andy Bohrsen (13 - 5), survived the sub-district. There, Mike finished first in his division; Andy, fifth in his. At the state tournament in Ellensburg, Mike won two matches and lost the same number to place fifth.

Coach Tom Thomas, in his first year as head swimming coach, faced a shortage of swimmers and a series of illnesses to keep swimmers resulting in a somewhat mediocre 7-8 win-loss record. But, despite the record the year had to be termed a success. The Grizzlies, after losing dismally in their first encounter with Aberdeen in the Bobcats' cramped pool, earned satisfying revenge in a 49-4 win at Hoquiam. Although the Grizzlies chalked up a 7-8 season record, their conference record of 5-6 placed Hoquiam third in Southwest Washington.

Many Hoquiam wins came from the senior members of the team, which formed a nucleus to lead the three juniors and five sophomores on the team.

Hoquiam swimmers established two school records in the 1966-67 season which included a 1:09.8 by Dave Brook in the breast stroke and a 218.2 total by diver Bob Knudson. At the State Championship meet in Seattle, Bob Martin placed eighth in the 400-yard freestyle and ninth in the 50-yard freestyle while Steve Jordan received the tenth-place award in the 400-yard freestyle.

As winter gave way to spring, many Hoquiam boys turned their attention to track. Although the loss of some of last year's "super stars" made the Grizzlies appear to be short handed, many individual efforts paved the way to a successful season. Hoquiam's strength lay in weight man Milt McGuire, hurdlers Bill Quigg and Bill DeLano, and sprinter Chuck Scott. The Grizzlies received many additional points through the efforts of veterans Steve Wise, Roger Spencer, and Doug Sturm. Underclassmen Bill Watson, Andy Mail, John Boettcher, and Larry Lytle boosted the team's scoring strength.

In the Southwest Washington Relays, Hoquiam placed second behind Hudson's Bay out of a field of fourteen schools. Early season victories came against Chehalis and Kelso; the Grizzlies primed themselves for encounters with R. A. Long and Aberdeen. Coaches Hal Boettcher, Bill Jamison, Jack Curtright, and Ed Ross expressed pride in the achievements of their team.

NEW COACH

Coach George Asan's baseball team showed great promise in the early 1967 season. The team's early success depended heavily upon the pitching arms of Jack Irion, Ed Korst, Jerry Linnenkohl, and John Quigg. The strong hitting of Tom LaForest and Mack Armstrong, along with the excellent fielding of Steve McKinney and Jon Parker, provided the Grizzlies with a winning combination.

Poor weather postponed many early season games and practices but did not dampen Hoquiam's spirit. In games with Olympia and the defending champions, Kelso, the Grizzlies proved themselves worthy of praise. The team spilled Olympia 6-0 and skipped by Kelso in a close pitching duel 2-1.

In view of better weather, Coach Asan, who pitched at Western Washington State College, rated his team as top contenders for the league crown.

The 1967 Grizzly golf team returned to repeat last year's successful season. Led by lettermen Andy Bohrsen and Nick Tommer, Hoquiam compiled an impressive 4 win-1 loss early season record. Highlighting the opening of the season, seniors Bill Heath and Gary Dobosz and juniors Greg Segai and Dick Garrett helped the Grizzlies defeat Centralia, Columbia River, and Washouga. Coach Pete Hegg's knowledge proved as invaluable this season as it has in years past.

A young Hoquiam tennis team appeared on the courts this spring. The Grizzlies, coached by Bill Giersch, relied heavily upon returning seniors Tim Erickson and Rick Wayman. Lettermen Roger Smith and Denny Moore, along with J. V. letterwinners Bob Cournoyer and Pat Curry, boosted the otherwise inexperienced team. Due to poor weather and the resulting lack of practice, the Hoquiam netmen lost their first two encounters with Aberdeen and Chehalis. Guy Wayman aided Coach Giersch in the training of the young squad, teaching both the players and the coach the "finer points" of the game.

*True to thee dear Hoquiam High Crimson and the Gray
Praise and honor, loyalty,
Now and every day.
Memories of thee we will cherish
Proud of days gone by,
We are behind you all the way
Spirits never die.*

*Here we stand and sing to thee,
Alma Mater true,
Striving for our highest goals
All success to you.
Raise your voices loud and clear
Upward to the sky,
While we pledge in word and deed—*

"...OUR LOVE FOR HOQUIAM HIGH"

Song Queens reflect emotion of jubilant fans following the 35-13 victory over Aberdeen.

On St. Patrick's Day 1966, the students of Hoquiam High chose four girls and three boys to guide and promote pep throughout the school. Ter Major, Weezie Jenkins, Patti Walsh, and Vic Espedal began their senior year with new ideas gained from song queen school where they attained highest honors. Dale Nordell reigned as yell king with Pat Curry and Steve Wetzel as yelldukes. These seven students staged various assemblies and skits throughout the year and led the spirit of the Grizzlies' boosters.

As newcomers to Hoquiam High, the class of 1969 experienced a satisfying year which began with the second annual "Frosh Week" preceding the Sophomore Hop. The "Freshmen" carried out all the wishes of the seniors, carrying books and walking down the hall with their shoelaces tied together.

The sophomores showed their willingness to participate in school activities by making the most of "Happiness is . . ." signs and winning the Happiness Cup in a contest sponsored by the Girls' League.

Advised by Mrs. Mitby and Mr. Brook, the Class of 1968 displayed leadership and unity by winning the money drive to send rooster buses to Hudson's Bay in October and by its talent assembly in January.

Scholastically it boasted a membership of 27 in the National Honor Society. College-bound students took the Merit Exam and attended the spring college conferences at Grays Harbor College to receive information about Washington and Oregon schools.

In athletics, the juniors again excelled. They added depth in all phases of athletic competition with many boys lettering in football, basketball, and other major sports.

Spring renewed junior enthusiasm which President Steve Hines directed to the Junior-Senior Ball and finally to Baccalaureate.

Thus the "Mid-Century Miracles" turned to their senior year, with determination to preserve the honor and tradition of Hoquiam High School.

The class of 1967 concluded their high school education by experiencing an outstanding year under the leadership of Dave Brook, class president. Advised by Mr. Hegg and Mrs. Cox, the seniors selected olive green and gold as class colors. In October, 123 college bound seniors took the Washington Pre-College Test at Grays Harbor College. In December these seniors attended panel discussions held by former Hoquiam High graduates concerning the demands of college life.

The seniors displayed dramatic talents in plays, skits, and assemblies. Class efforts resulted in a fine production of "The Chalk Garden" in November, while Mr. Holevas' English classes presented a Veteran's Day Assembly skit based on the Viet Nam situation. Talent acts and comical re-enactments of grade school events made Senior Night sparkle with humor. Tim Wandell served as Master of Ceremonies for the class talent assembly on February 23 which featured musical numbers in a night club setting.

Traditional events crowded the seniors' calendars during the final months of the year. The Junior-Senior Ball, Mother's Day Tea, and Class Day provided kaleidoscopic memories. Baccalaureate and Commencement terminated the year with a solemn and impressive tone.

A Challenge to Youth...

*"The freedom of which we boast is not lost in shattered Dunkirks and blazing Pearl Harbors
.... such events call for the utmost resistance.
Freedom is lost little by little in noiseless theft,
a fragment of concession to expediency here,
a morsel of 'what does it matter?' there,
Then, shockingly, we find that freedom has disappeared in the regimentation of not only our daily doings but our eternal ambitions."...*

Kinda, Wasn't that a terrible U.S. find
I just know I didn't any other than a "ger
you did much better
I feel for we got next last chance. Just of luck
Don't forget

Linda,

This year has gone by so fast that I can hardly believe it. It seems only yesterday that we walked into Mr. Allasina's room. Actual I relieved to be able to walk out of there for good. I hope that next year I'll be in some more your classes. Have a lot of fun this summer and I'll see ya next year.

Congratulations Seniors!

Chris

"This process we call education . . ." represents a journey through 1967 at Hoquiam High School. The HESPERIAN has attempted to record the events that made this year's "process" memorable, and we extend our thanks to those who helped in the publication of this yearbook: to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Anderson of Andy's Photo Service who devoted hours to taking candid and group pictures; to Mr. Randich and the compositors of Washingtonian Print who eliminated many mistakes and solved problems by spending extra time on the HESPERIAN; and to our reliable and efficient assistants and staff members who were always willing to help. And last, our gratitude is beyond words to our faithful advisor, Miss Kreps.

Once again, we say thank you to all who aided in the publication of the 1967 HESPERIAN.
